

To Him Who Gave Himself

(BOYLSTON. S.M.)

$\text{♩} = 110$

1. To Him who gave Him - self To God an offer - ing sweet,
 2. To Him who gave Him - self For us, that we might be
 3. To Him who gave Him - self For her, the church He loved,

And purged a - way our guilt of sin, As - crite we prais - es meet.
 Re - deemed, and pur-chased for His own, Sing we e - ter - nal - ly.
 And in the dark do - main of death His deep af - fec - tion proved,

4. To Him who gave Himself,
 Sound we our note of praise ;
 Our lives, our hearts, our all would we
 Upon His altar raise.

5. To Him bow every knee ;
 To Him raise glad the song ;
 All honour, glory, thanks and praise
 To Him by right belong.
