

O Jesus, Lord, 'tis joy to know

(PEMBROKE. 8.8.6.8.8.6)

$\text{♩} = 90$

1. O Je - sus, Lord, 'tis joy to know Thy path is
 2. Thy ho - ly head, once bound with thorns, The crown of
 3. As Head for us Thou sit - test there, Thy mem - bers o'er of shame and woe For us so mee-kly trod : All glo - ry now a - dorns, Thy seat, the Fa-ther's throne : O here the bless - ing share, Of all Thou dost re - ceive : Thy fi - nished is Thy work of toil ; Thou reap - est Lord, e'en now we sing Thy praise, Ours the e - wis - dom, rich - es, hon - ours, powers, Thy bound - less now the fruit and spoil, Ex - alt - ed by our God.

 ter - nal song to raise, Wor - thy the Lord a - lone.
 love has all made ours, Who in Thy name be - lieve.

4. We triumph in Thy triumphs, Lord ;
Thy joys our deepest joys afford,
The fruit of love divine :
While sorrowing, suffering, toiling here,
How does the thought our spirits cheer,
The throne of glory's Thine !

Meribah, 29 ; Ariel, 162.