

173 « A little while » — The Lord shall come

(STELLA. 8.8.8.8.8.8)

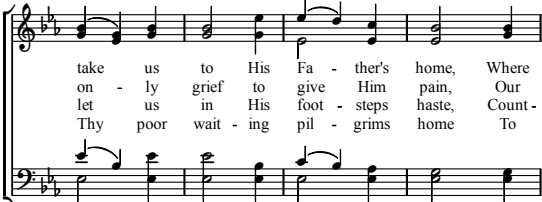

$\text{♩} = 100$

1. « A lit - tle while » — the Lord shall come, And
 2. « A lit - tle while » — He'll come a - gain ; Let
 3. « A lit - tle while » — 'twill soon be past, Why 4. « A lit - tle while » — come, Sa - viour, come ; For we shall wan - der here no more ; He'll us the pre - cious hours re - deem, Our should we shun the pro - mised cross ? O Thee Thy bride has tar - ried long : Take take us to His Fa - ther's home, Where on - ly grief to give Him pain, Our let us in His foot - steps haste, Count - Thy poor wait - ing pil - grims home To

He for us is gone be - fore, To joy to serve and fol - low Him. Watch - ing for Him all else but loss ; For sing the new e - ter - nal song, To dwell with Him, to see His face, And ing and rea - dy may we be, As how will re - com - pense His smile, The see Thy glo - ry, and to be In sing the glo - ries of His grace. those that wait their Lord to see.

suf - ferings of this « lit - tle while » !
ev - ery - thing con - formed to Thee !

Alternate Tunes : St. Catherine, 223 ; Treue Liebe, 110.