

219 Lord, what is man ? 'Tis He who died

(MELITA. 8.8.8.8.8.8)

James George Deck (1802-1884)

John Bacchus Dykes (1823-1876), 1871

$\text{♩} = 100$

1. Lord, what is man ? 'Tis He who died And all Thy na-ture glo-ri-fied, Thy right-cous-ness and grace dis-played When He for sin a - tone - ment made, O - be - dient un - to death, was slain — Wor - thy is He o'er all to reign.

2. Thy counsels ere the world began
All centred in the Son of man,
Him destined to the highest place,
Head of His church through sovereign grace.
To Him, enthroned in Majesty,
Let every creature bend the knee.
3. Worthy, O Son of man, art Thou
Of every crown that decks Thy brow ;
Worthy art Thou to be adored
And owned as universal Lord ;
Oh, hasten that long-promised day
When all shall own Thy rightful sway !

Alternate Tunes : St. Catherine, 223 ; Stelia, 173.