

$\text{♩} = 80$

1. From the pa - lace of His glo - ry,
 2. There from that e - ter - nal bright - ness
 3. Trembl - ing, we had hoped for mer - cy —

From the home of joy and love,
 Have His thoughts flowed forth in love ;
 Some lone place with - in the door ;

Came the Lord Him - self to seek us ;
 He in His great love would have us
 But the crown, the throne, the man - sion

He would have us there a - bove.
 Ev - er there with Him a - bove.
 All were pur - posed long be - fore.

4. And in past and distant ages,
 In those courts so bright and fair,
 Ere we were, was He rejoicing,
 All He won with us to share.