1. Rock of ag - es, cleft for me, Grace hath hid me safe in Thee,
 2. Not the la - bour of my hands Could ful - fil the law's de - mands :
 3. Found by Thee be - fore I sought, Un - to Thee in mer - cy brought,

Where the wa - ter and the blood, From Thy riv - en side which flowed,
 Could my zeal no res - pite know, Could my tears for ev - er flow,
 I have Thee for righte - ous - ness, From Thy ful - ness grace for grace :

Are of sin the dou - ble cure, Cleans - ing from its guilt and power.
 Nought for sin could e'er a - tone But Thy blood, and Thine a - lone.
 Thou hast washed me in Thy blood, Made me live, and live to God.

4. While I draw this fleeting breath,
 If mine eyelids close in death,
 When I soar to worlds unknown,
 Still of Thee I'll sing alone :
 Rock of ages, cleft for me,
 All my boast and joy's in Thee.
