

To wait for that appointed day

(HULL. 8.8.6.8.8.6)

$\text{♩} = 90$

1. To wait for that ap - point - ed day, When
 2. And though He should pro - long His stay, And Christ His glo - ries will dis - play, Be sin - ners mock at the de - lay, His this our one great care: To do His will, our peo - ple need not fear; The Man who wore the busi - ness here; No toil to shun, no crown of thorns, Whose claim the world re - dan - ger fear, Re - solved the cross to bear.

 jects and scorns, In glo - ry will ap - pear.

In patience then we now may rest, Assured the Father's time is best,
And all His word obey ;
We wait till that blest day shall come ;
The Lord will first convey us home,
And then His power display.

Meribah, 29 ; Ariel, 162.