

Saviour, in love divine

(SILCHESTER, S.M.)

$\text{♩} = 96$

1. Sav - iour, in love div - ine, 'Tis
 2. Here ev - ery wel - come guest Waits,
 3. Con - science has closed its strife, And

Thou hast made us free To eat the bread and Lord, from Thee to learn The sec - rets of Thy faith de - lights to prove The sweet - ness of the drink the wine In memo - ry, Lord, of Thee.

 Fa - ther's breast, And all Thy grace dis - cern.
 Bread of life, The ful - ness of Thy love.

4. Oh, if this taste of love
 To us is now so sweet,
 What will it be, O Lord, above
 Thy blessed self to meet ?
5. To see Thee face to face,
 Thy perfect likeness wear,
 And all Thy ways of wondrous grace
 Through endless years declare !

Alternate Tunes : Boylston, 31 ; Dennis, 146.