

O Jesus Christ, the Saviour

(LANCASHIRE. 7.6.7.6.D.)

$\text{♩} = 100$

1. O Je - sus Christ, the Sa - viour, We
 2. Yes, though the temp - est round us Seems
 3. There with what joy re - view - ing Past on - ly look to Thee; 'Tis in Thy love and safe - ty to de - fy; Though rocks and shoals sur - con - flicts, dan - gers, fears, Thy hand our foes sub - fa - vour Our souls find li - ber - ty.

 round us, And bil - lows swell on high,
 du - ing, And dry - ing all our tears;

While Sa - tan fierce - ly ra - ges, And Thou dost from all pro - tect us, And Our hearts with rap - ture burn - ing, The ship - wreck we might fear, 'Tis this our grief as - cheer us by Thy love; Thy coun - sels still di - path we shall re - trace, Where now our souls are suag - es That Thou art al - ways near.

 rect us Safe to the rest a - bove.
 learn - ing The rich - es of Thy grace.

4. Oh, then how loud the chorus
 Shall to Thy name resound
 From all at rest before us,
 From all Thy grace hath found !
 One joyful song for ever
 Each heart, each lip shall raise,
 The praise of our Redeemer,
 Our God and Father's praise.

Alternate Tunes : Dublin, 67 ; Ellacombe, 78.