

John Ryland (1753-1825)

H. K. Oliver (1800-1885)

$\text{♩} = 100$

1. O Lord, we would de - light in Thee, And on Thy care de -
 2. When hu - man cis - terns all are dried, Thy ful - ness is the
 3. Why should we thirst for ought be - low, While there's a foun - tain pend ; To Thee in ev - ery trou - ble flee, Our safe, un - fail - ing Friend.

 same ; May we with this be sa - tis - fied, And glo - ry in Thy name.
 near, A foun - tain which doth ev - er flow The faint - ing heart to cheer ?

4. No good in creatures can be found ;
 All, all is found in Thee :
 We must have all things and abound
 Through Thy sufficiency.
5. Thou that hast made our heaven secure
 Wilt here all good provide ;
 While Thou art rich, can we be poor —
 Thou who for us hast died ?
6. O Lord, we cast each care on Thee,
 And triumph and adore ;
 O that our great concern may be
 To love and praise Thee more.

Alternate Tunes : Martyrdom, 136 ; St. Agnes, 6.