

Now let our hearts unite

(MILLENNIUM. 6.6.6.6.8.8)

$\text{♩} = 100$

1. Now let our hearts u - nite To praise the Sav-iour's
 2. He gave for us His Son In e - ver - last - ing
 3. Now He's ex - al - ted high, And from yon glo-rious name; Let ran - somed souls de - light His love; And lo, our Lord came down His throne He hears His peo - ple cry, And tri - umph to pro - claim, Till heaven and earth shall faith - ful - ness to prove; O - beyed and suf - fered, claims them as His own; He bears them all up - hear our songs: Sal - va - tion to our God be - longs.

 died and rose In tri - umph o - ver all our foes.
 on His breast: In Him we are com - plete - ly blest.

4. For ever justified
By His atoning blood,
We shall be glorified
In presence of our God ;
Ere long we shall our Saviour see,
For where He is His saints must be.

Alternate Tunes : Darwall, 11 ; Lenox, 155.