 3. O Lord, Thou too once hast - ed This wea - ry des - ert through,

Whose won - drous love and fa - vour Have made our cause Thine own ;

 Once ful - ly tried and tast - ed Its bitt - er - ness and woe ;

 Midst nev - er - ceas - ing dan - gers We through the de - sert roam ;
 And hence Thy heart is ten - der In tru - est sym - pa - thy,

For Thou, they know, wilt nev - er Re - fuse their griefs to share.
 As pil - grims here and stran - gers, We seek the rest to come.
 Though now the heav - ens ren - der All praise to Thee on high.

Reveal in us Thy love,
The joy we shall inherit
With Thee, our Head above ;
May all this consolation
Our trembling hearts sustain,
Sure – though through tribulation –
The promised rest to gain.
