

Oh scenes of heavenly joy

( TRANTHAM. S.M. )

Thomas West Porter (1844-1917)

Robert Jackson (1842-1914)

$\text{♩} = 100$

1. Oh scenes of heaven - ly joy ! The Fa - ther's house a - bove,
 2. There glo - ry bright and fair, Shines with ce - les - tial beam ;
 3. The Fa - ther's full de - light Is cen - tred in the Son,

Where cloud - less peace with - out al - loy, Fills all that home of love.
 For He who suf - fered once is there, Its cen - tre and its theme.
 And count - less tongues in heaven u - nite To tell what He hath done.

4. The Lamb enthroned shall there
 Engage each raptured heart,
 While myriad saints Christ's likeness bear
 And have with Him their part.

5. 'Tis He who made us meet
 With saints in light to dwell ;
 And now we chant His praises sweet,
 Whose love we know so well.

6. E'en now we taste the love,
 And know the mighty power,
 By which we'll rise to realms above
 When waiting time is o'er.

7. Praise Him again, again —
 For us the cross He bore ;
 Now all is Yea, and all Amen,
 In Him for evermore.
